PERSONAL DATA:

The collection and processing of personal data necessary for issuing the Card and managing the associated contractual relationship is carried out by TML, as the data controller, and/or by the Operators on behalf of TML. Personal data is retained for the duration of the contract with TML. After that period, it may still be kept only to the extent necessary for exercising rights or fulfilling contractual and/or legal obligations to which TML and/or the Operators are subject.

The Holder has the right to request access to, rectification, erasure, and limitation of processing of their personal data from TML, as well as the portability of their data, if applicable. To exercise these rights, a written request must be submitted through the means indicated in the General Conditions for Issuance and Use of the navegante® Card. Additional information on how TML processes your data is also available there.

The General Conditions for using the navegante® Card can be found at the delivery locations of this form and on the TML and/or operators' websites.
